

A hand-drawn map on aged paper showing a network of roads and geographical features. A yellow line represents a road, with several branches. Key locations labeled include Serpaize, Torque, Remoulon, St-Hilaire, Chapelainière, la Grotte Chère, and Baraton. A blue line represents a river, labeled 'R. de St-Hilaire'. A road is marked 'D. 75' and another 'P. 75'. There are small black dots representing buildings or points of interest. A pinkish-red area is visible near Serpaize. The map is oriented with North at the top.